

Languages (not written)

Picture writing system

glyphs (simplified pictures) directly represent objects and concepts.

Phonetic system

graphemes refer to sounds or spoken symbols, and the form of the grapheme is not related to its meanings

Logogram

grapheme (logogram) represents a whole word

Syllabic

grapheme represents a syllable

Alphabetic

grapheme represents an elementary sound

